

Lincoln is dead! The awful culmination of treason has been reached and passed—and a pang of anguish has swept over our country from ocean to ocean, like a wave of woe. Tongue cannot express the grief that weighs down the spirit and presses on every heart that throbs for liberty. The mighty intellect and changeless will that has guided us in safety through storm-clouds of war and seas of blood, into sight of the heaven of peace, has left us forever. But soldiers, his work was done—nobly done—done so as to last forever.

Citizen of Louisville.

The 14th of April saw your beautiful city holding high carnival of joy. The 15th—that terrible 15th—you were in mourning—your hearts were palsied with horror—the savior of your lovely city was stricken, stricken by accursed treason—dread. Well might you hang your balconies, your doors and windows with funeral emblems of woe. There is erected in the heart of a weeping nation, a monument that shall endure after brass and marble have crumbled into dust.

But citizens and soldiers of the Union, let us over the grave of the savior of our country, of our great chieftain, erect a monument that shall show to our children's children when they look back from the great plain of the future, and see him whom we mourn to-day, in all the grandeur of his colossal proportions, that, although living upon the mountain side, we could see the halo of glory that does and shall forever radiate from his brow.

As eminently fitting the Lincoln National Monument Association has been formed at Springfield, Illinois, the home of the illustrious dead, where, over his grave, it is intended shall be erected a massive monument

CINCINNATI, May 19.—Major General yesterday and was enthusiastically received.

He has returned to Louisville.

The Commercial's Nashville dispatch says there is a prospect of a new judicial and executive powers in Tennessee. Gov. Brownlow, as special agent of the Treasury Department, acting under written orders from that Department, had rented out some abandoned property belonging to disloyal persons who were in the Southern Confederacy.

Judge Trigg, in a preceding term of the Court, ordered a tenant of the Treas-ury

Department to be disposed of a farm which he had rented from Brownlow, and the property restored to the owner.

Gen. Wilson, on Gov. Brownlow's application, enforced the contract, and Judge

Trigg's order was accordingly executed.

On Tuesday, Judge Trigg, at Knoxville, delivered a charge to the Grand Jury, in which he directed them, in strong language, to indict Gov. Brownlow, and Judge Trigg is understood to be hostile to the confiscation laws.

A dispatch from Resaca, Ga., says that

Gen. Davis arrived at Macon on Monday, and was sent to Augusta with a strong guard. From thence he will be taken to Fortress Monroe via Savannah.

New York, May 19.—The Herald's

London correspondent says a large meeting of North Carolinians, to take action for the restoration of the Government and to restore order in their State, was held at Raleigh on the 18th inst.

Speeches were made by a number of prominent citizens and a series of resolutions unanimously adopted. The meeting was a success, and the displacement of General Banks, their cause of complaint being his removal of Dr.

Kennedy from the Majority of New Orleans, to which he had been appointed during the absence of Gen. Banks.

This step which was absolutely necessary to save the city from the hands of Gen. Sheridan, has been assigned to an important department command in the West—not yet announced—and his old staff starts for it to-morrow.

All the effects of Major Lincoln are boxed and directed to Chicago. The family take in New Orleans at the same time the Minneapolis was destroyed.
